❖ WALVIS BAY, NAMIBIA

WAL-013 PELICAN POINT KAYAKING

Duration: 4.50 Hrs Tour Price: $109.00

Retail Price: $259.00

Date: December 08, 2024 10:15 AM

Date: December 09, 2024 07:00 AM

Cruise across Walvis Bay in a catamaran for a kayaking adventure from Pelican Point and return in a 4x4 vehicle that's ideal for negotiating the salt pans and sand dunes. While cruising, you will enjoy spectacular views of Walvis Bay and the surrounding natural areas. As you will notice even before disembarking, long slender Pelican Point is a haven for wildlife. Thousands of Cape fur seals frolic in the sea and along the coast, bottlenose and Heaviside's dolphins often breach the water's surface and seabirds are seemingly everywhere, especially pelicans, cormorants and petrels. Chances are, you will be treated to an even closer look at the bountiful marine life and wildlife while kayaking through the typically calm waters. A different sort of adventure awaits once you hop in the 4x4 vehicle and race off across the salt pans, along Donkey Bay and up into the sand dunes. The views along the way will be absolutely magnificent.

- Enjoy a scenic cruise aboard a catamaran across Walvis Bay to Pelican Point.
- Kayak off Pelican Point, a thin finger of land that enormous numbers of seals and seabirds inhabit.
- Look for bottlenose and Heaviside's dolphins, often swimming right next to your kayak.
- Ride across the surrounding salt pans, along the coast and into the dunes in a 4x4 vehicle.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour requires a moderate amount of activity and participants should be in good physical condition. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests, guests with mobility concerns and guests who have had recent back or neck injuries.

WAL-006 SEAL & PELICAN CRUISE

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Tour Price: $49.00

Retail Price: $205.00

Date: December 08, 2024 11:00 AM, 02:00 PM

Date: December 09, 2024 07:30 AM

Applaud the splendid natural beauty of Southern Africa's western coast during this dolphin and seal cruise on the Walvis Bay Lagoon. Travel along a littoral road to the historic jetty at Swakopmund and board an open-air boat for a three-hour cruise in the renowned Walvis Bay Lagoon, declared a Wetland of International Importance as it is one of the most significant ecological sites along Southern Africa's western coast. You'll learn that the lagoon is well-known for its native bird species and vast array of intra-African and Palaearctic migrants, and find the water is usually very calm yet teeming with avian and marine life. Continue on to Pelican Point, a sand spit separating Walvis Bay from the Atlantic Ocean, where you'll likely encounter a large Cape fur seal colony, and watch for schools of heavyside and bottlenose dolphins that often swim alongside the boat. Keep a sharp lookout for white-chinned petrels, Wilson's storm petrels, cape gannets, pelicans and cormorants. During your cruise, you'll savor a delicious repast of fresh oysters, sparkling wine, soft drinks and a selection of open-faced sandwiches, a perfect accompaniment to your outdoor adventure.

- Embark an open-air boat for an in-depth exploration of the famed Walvis Bay Lagoon.
 - Survey the lagoon's protected wetland, known for its plethora of avian species and marine life.
 - Spy a large colony of Cape fur seals at sandy Pelican Point.
 - Thrill to schools of heavyside and bottlenose dolphins trailing beside your boat.
 - Search for white-chinned petrels, Wilson's storm petrels or cape gannets amid a flurry of countless pelicans and cormorants.
 - Relish a tasty meal of fresh oysters, open-faced sandwiches, soft drinks and sparkling wine as you cruise.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes. •Wear a windbreaker or warm jacket. •Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes approximately three hours of boating on open water. The tour is not recommended for guests with mobility concerns or guests who utilize a wheelchair. There is a drastic change between high and low tide, which may make it difficult to embark and/or disembark the boat, and the weather can be windy and cold at times. Operation of this tour is entirely dependent upon prevailing weather conditions. Wildlife sightings, while likely, are not guaranteed. Participants must be at least 21 years of age to be served alcoholic beverages. Guests who go ashore do so with the understanding that they will be mixing with members of the general public."

WAL-010 BIRDING TOUR

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $169.00

Date: December 08, 2024 11:00 AM

Date: December 09, 2024 07:00 AM

Thrill to sightings of a profusion of bird species during this tour to the rich feeding grounds of the Walvis Bay Lagoon and salt mine. Journey to the ecologically indispensable Walvis Bay Lagoon, declared a Wetland of International Importance, and begin your quest to identify the wide variety of shore birds and waders who congregate there, including sandpipers, plovers, pelicans and herons, depending upon the season. You'll enter the sedimentation pans of the expansive Walvis Bay Salt Holdings, the largest producer of solar sea salt in sub-Saharan Africa, and enjoy a close-up view of the many resident birds, perhaps even seeing phalaropes, grebes and terns, including the rare Damara tern. Travel farther along the beach to Pelican Point and discover a large Cape fur seal colony, along with osprey and exotic African black oystercatchers. Depending upon the weather and time of day, you'll possibly glimpse the dune or sabota lark and perhaps recognize an Orange River white-eye on your return through the enthralling Kuiseb River delta, a fabulous site in which to round out your unforgettable bird-watching foray.

- Catalogue sightings of numerous waders and shore birds at the nutrient-rich Walvis Bay Lagoon.
 - See a plethora of avian species, such as sandpipers, plovers, herons and pelicans.
 - Visit the Walvis Bay Salt mine to look for phalaropes, grebes and terns.
 - Spy osprey and African black oystercatchers at Pelican Point, home to a Cape fur seal colony.
 - Keep watch at the Kuiseb River delta for an Orange River white-eye and a dune or sabota lark.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes. •Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This specialized tour is recommended only for birding enthusiasts. The tour is available to guests who utilize a collapsible wheelchair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have an able-bodied companion to assist them. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. One set of binoculars and a birding book will accompany each vehicle. Wildlife sightings, although likely, are not guaranteed. Guests who go ashore do so with the understanding that they will be mixing with members of the general public.

Marvel at a vast national park that is distinguished by massive sand dunes and otherworldly terrain during a tour of a remarkable desert environment. Settle in for an approximately 30-minute drive to Dune 7, the region's largest sand dune, and perhaps find sand-boarders and skiers zipping down its slope. Continuing on, you'll enter the Namib-Naukluft National Park, which includes part of the Namib Desert and is the country's largest nature preserve, and notice its striking rusty-hued sand dunes, whose colors vary due to the iron in the sand oxidizing to a darker shade as the dunes age. In spite of the seemingly harsh conditions, find flora and fauna thriving here, such as the raggedy welwitschia, which resembles wilted lettuce and produces only two leaves in its up to 500-year lifetime. You'll journey to Moon Landscape, a vastly eroded valley that is reminiscent of the lunar surface. Discover that even though the environment appears to be barren, it supports a complex ecosystem of lichens and shrubs subsisting on the occasional moisture provided by sea fog that rolls in from as far as 20 miles away. You'll wonder at nature's incredible adaptability during this fascinating excursion.

- Stand in awe at Dune 7, a massive sand dune enjoyed by sand-boarders and skiers.
 - Experience the Namib-Naukluft National Park, a striking natural preserve that includes part of the Namib Desert.
 - Discern the age of a sand dune from the depth of its rust color, due to oxidation through the years.
 - Wonder at the hardiness of the flora and fauna that thrive in the arid desert conditions.
 - Examine the unappealing welwitschia plant, which resembles wilted lettuce and lives up to five centuries.
 - Contemplate a lunar-like topography carved out by the wind at Moon Landscape.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes. •Carry bottled water, as you may require hydration. •Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes limited walking, mainly at the guest's discretion during stops. The tour is not recommended for guests with mobility concerns or guests who utilize a wheelchair, unless they remain seated inside the vehicles during the photo stops. The tour is not recommended for guests with dust allergies. Guests who go ashore do so with the understanding that they will be mixing with members of the general public.

WAL-008 TREASURES OF THE NAMIB DESERT BY OFF-ROAD VEHICLE

Duration: 4.50 Hrs Tour Price: $179.00

Retail Price: $339.00

Date: December 08, 2024 12:00 PM

Date: December 09, 2024 06:00 AM

Experience the treasures of the Namib Desert during this memorable off-road expedition that includes a stop at the renowned Walvis Bay Lagoon. Board your off-road vehicle for a drive to the Namib-Naukluft National Park, which encompasses the Naukluft Mountain Range and part of the Namib, one of the world's oldest deserts and site of the world's highest and most vividly colored sand dunes. As you explore the unique plant life and terrain of this arid region, you'll discover Moon Landscape, a vastly eroded valley that is reminiscent of the lunar surface due to the wind's effect on the rock formations and sand. You'll proceed to the Welwitschia Valley, where thousands of bizarre welwitschia plants are scattered about. After stopping to view these distinctive specimens as well as a variety of interesting lichens, you'll continue to a scenic location for a refreshment of orange juice and savory snacks. Pause for photos at Dune 7, the highest sand dune in the area, then make a brief stop at the Walvis Bay Lagoon and tidal flood plains, declared a Wetland of International Importance for its abundance of marine life, pelicans and a wealth of other avian species.

- See the rugged mountains, shifting dunes and vibrant colors of beguiling Namib-Naukluft National Park.
 - Gaze in awe at a lunar-like topography carved out by the wind at Moon Landscape.
 - Study the uniquely unattractive welwitschia plant, found only in the Namib Desert.
 - Appreciate a relaxing stop for savory snacks and orange juice.
 - Capture dramatic photos at the commanding Dune 7, the area's tallest sand dune.
 - Observe the Walvis Bay Lagoon and tidal flood plains, recognized internationally for its environmental importance.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes. •Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour involves off-road travel over bumpy, uneven and dusty gravel roads. It is not recommended for guests with mobility concerns or guests who utilize a wheelchair, unless they remain seated inside the vehicles during the photo stops. The tour is not recommended for guests with dust allergies. Each vehicle will accommodate three to ten guests. Date: December 09, 2024 07:00 AM

Explore Swakopmund's colonial past during this orientation tour that includes a visit to the Walvis Bay Lagoon. Journey along the scenic coast to the mouth of the Swakop River and find Swakopmund, an enchanting seaside resort that resembles a Bavarian village. You'll see the town's colonial past reflected in the early 19th-century art nouveau architecture found on many appealing buildings that have been declared national monuments. Discover the neo-Baroque German Evangelical Lutheran Church and the elegant historic Railway Station, which is now the Swakopmund Hotel's reception area. After passing the town's historic jetty, you'll walk to the Karakulia Weavers where Karakul sheep wool is spun, dyed and woven into rugs and wall hangings. Explore the Kristall Gallery, which displays crystals weighing up to 14 tons, and appreciate free time at the Brauhaus Gallery, a town center shopping arcade. En route back to Walvis Bay, you'll pause for photos at Dune 7, the highest sand dune in the area, then make a brief stop at the Walvis Bay Lagoon and tidal flood plains, declared a Wetland of International Importance, and marvel at its rich marine life and myriad bird species.

- Uncover early 19th-century art nouveau architecture in Swakopmund, a seaside resort town that evokes a Bavarian village.
 - See the lovely neo-Baroque German Evangelical Lutheran Church and the ornate former Railway Station.
 - View the town's beloved jetty and the Karakulia Weavers, where sheep wool is made into rugs and wall hangings.
 - Study crystals up to 14 tons at the Kristall Gallery and browse the shops in the Brauhaus Gallery.
 - Capture dramatic photos at the commanding Dune 7, the area's tallest sand dune.
 - Observe the Walvis Bay Lagoon and tidal flood plains, recognized internationally for its environmental importance.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes. •Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

The tour is available to guests who utilize a collapsible wheelchair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have an able-bodied companion to assist them. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. On days when the Kristall Gallery is closed, a visit to Karakulia Weavers will be substituted. WAL-011 SWAKOPMUND TOWNSHIP TOUR

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $159.00

Date: December 08, 2024 01:00 PM

Date: December 09, 2024 06:45 AM

Delve into the daily bustle of Walvis Bay on a visit to a working-class residential district during this rewarding tour. Travel a coastal road to Mondesa Township, which was established in the early 1950s to provide housing for Owambo, Damara and Herero people working in the city of Swakopmund. You'll find that this district, just a brief distance from Swakopmund's center, reveals a radically different world from the tourist center, providing you with an invaluable opportunity for personal growth by interacting with the friendly families who reside there. Observe the inhabitants' daily life during an approximately three-hour customized tour that engages you in the resident's everyday activities, and learn some of the region's history to assist you in bridging the cultural gap and achieving increased understanding. Take in a fascinating demonstration on the preparation of the cereal grain mahangu, taste unusual but delicious food and enjoy the dancing of the local children. In addition to benefitting from your immersion into a much different way of life, you'll feel gratified that a portion of your visitor's fee is contributed to a community fund that honors and supports the district's citizens.

- Visit Mondesa Township, a culturally diverse district of Swakopmund built to house the city's workers.
 - Meet the resident families, a priceless opportunity to grasp a culture likely entirely different from your own.
 - Further your knowledge of the township's history to better understand life in Mondesa.
 - Sample flavorful local dishes and watch the preparation of a cereal grain known as mahangu.
 - Applaud the joyous dancing of the district's children.
 - Appreciate that a portion of your fee supports Mondesa's citizens.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes. •Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour must be booked at least ten days prior to the sailing date. Once booked, it is non-refundable. All interaction with the community should be conducted in a non-intrusive manner, respecting the inhabitants' privacy at all times. Guests who go ashore do so with the understanding that they will be mixing with members of the general public.

WAL-012 SANDWICH HARBOUR

Duration: 4.50 Hrs Tour Price: $179.00

Retail Price: $339.00

Date: December 08, 2024 01:00 PM

Date: December 09, 2024 07:00 AM

Explore the Sandwich Harbour area in a 4x4 vehicle that can negotiate vastly different, otherwise inaccessible terrains. As an introduction to the natural wonders, you will first stop at Walvis Lagoon, which attracts a remarkable variety of seabirds and thousands of pink flamingoes. The species that you see will depend on the season, as many of the birds are migratory. You will then travel south through Namib-Naukluft Park, a hauntingly beautiful arid landscape with towering sand dunes. A natural tidal lagoon rims the coast, whose sparse vegetation stabilizes the dunes, which would otherwise shift dramatically. If the tides and ocean swells permit, you will drive to the lagoon along the beach. If not, you will travel entirely across the surrounding dunes, some of which rise more than 200 feet above sea level. Either way, you can expect to see a massive number of water birds, including cormorants, terns and waders.

- Ride in a 4x4 vehicle through protected natural areas that would be inaccessible otherwise.
- View a staggeringly high number of seabirds, including flamingoes in season.
- Drive along the beach that rims remote Sandwich Harbour or across the surrounding sand dunes.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour requires a moderate amount of activity and participants should be in good physical condition. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests, guests with mobility concerns and guests who have had recent back or neck injuries.

WAL-009 LIVING DESERT BY OFF-ROAD VEHICLE

Retail Price: $339.00

Date: December 08, 2024 03:00 PM

Date: December 09, 2024 06:00 AM

Discover the unique denizens of the world's oldest desert during this off-road adventure in the Namib Desert. Settle in for a vista-filled drive in an off-road vehicle to the eerily beautiful Namib Desert. Upon arrival, you'll be led by an expert guide through seemingly lifeless landscapes in search of indigenous species and learn how they adapt to the inhospitable environment. Perhaps see creatures like the sidewinding adder, the Palmetto gecko, the sand-diving lizard, the Namaqua chameleon and various other diminutive beetles, lizards and geckos that live and survive in the torrid desert conditions. You'll conclude your tour with a stop at Sundowner Dune to take in spectacular views over the Atlantic Ocean and enjoy refreshing orange juice and savory snacks. During your return along a scenic coastal road, contemplate the nearly ineffable beauty of the bewitching Namib and its resilient tenants.

- Board an off-road vehicle for an exhilarating outing into the breathtaking Namib Desert.
 - Search the barren landscape for indigenous species that have adapted to the challenging environment.
 - Stay alert for glimpses of the Palmetto gecko, sand-diving lizards or Namaqua chameleons.
 - Revitalize with orange juice and savory snacks at Sundowner Dune.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes. •Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour involves off-road travel over bumpy, uneven and dusty gravel roads. It is not recommended for guests with mobility concerns or guests who utilize a wheelchair, unless they remain seated inside the vehicles at the various photo stops. The tour is not recommended for guests with dust allergies. Each vehicle will accommodate three to ten guests. Travel time to the Namib Desert is approximately 45 minutes by coach in each direction. Guests who go ashore do so with the understanding that they will be mixing with members of the general public.

PTE-006 KARIEGA PRIVATE GAME RESERVE

Duration: 8.00 Hrs Tour Price: $299.00

Retail Price: $449.00

Date: December 12, 2024 09:30 AM

Join a game drive in an open-air 4x4 vehicle through the pristine Kariega Game Reserve in search of lions, elephants and countless other animals. Travel northeast for approximately 90 minutes to the Kariega Game Reserve, which sprawls over a fertile wilderness that was farmland just over 20 years ago. You'll learn that today it supports an abundance of wildlife, including the iconic Big Five, comprising the lion, African elephant, Cape buffalo, leopard and rhinoceros. Upon arrival, you'll be treated to a refreshment before boarding your open-air 4x4 vehicle, which offers unobstructed views ideal for photography, and then drive into the bush for approximately three hours. In the varied terrain, which ranges from grassland to forest, you may see elephants tenderly caring for their young, giraffes nibbling on the upper leaves of the trees and thick-skinned rhinos happily wading in the water. You'll likely encounter a variety of antelope and some of the more than 250 resident bird species. After your exhilarating game drive, ponder your superb experience while savoring lunch at the Kariega Restaurant, located atop a high ridge overlooking the lush hills and plains of the glorious reserve.

- Track the wild animals of the Kariega Game Reserve during a 4x4 vehicle game drive.
- Enjoy unobstructed vistas and photo opportunities from your open-air vehicle.
- Watch for African elephants, rhinoceros, leopards, Cape buffalo and lions, collectively known as the Big Five.
- Delight at the sight of graceful antelope and a number of the reserve's over 250 bird species.
- Sit for a satisfying buffet luncheon at the Kariega Restaurant, which boasts panoramic views of the reserve.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses, binoculars and sunscreen.

This tour is mostly panoramic and includes over six hours of combined travel. It is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair or guests with mobility concerns. Guests must be able to enter and exit the 4x4 vehicle with limited assistance. Tour vehicles travel on gravel and bumpy roads; tour is not recommended for pregnant women and guests with back, hip and/or neck problems. For safety reasons, no children under the age of six are not allowed in the open-air vehicles. No food may be taken into the reserve in the open vehicles. Guests are not permitted to use cellular phones, smoke, speak loudly or stand up during the game drives, as this will disturb the animals. There will be comfort stops upon entering and exiting the park. Wildlife sightings, while likely, are not guaranteed.

Duration: 8.00 Hrs Tour Price: $209.00

Retail Price: $359.00

Date: December 12, 2024 09:30 AM

Immerse yourself in the unspoiled Pumba Private Game Reserve, looking for wild animals aboard an open-air 4x4 vehicle. Relax during a leisurely 75-minute drive through the gorgeous South African countryside to the Pumba Private Game Reserve, an immense property featuring five different biomes with a dazzling variety of flora and fauna. Upon arrival, you'll be treated to refreshments before meeting your park ranger and boarding your open-air 4x4 vehicle, which offers unobstructed views ideal for photography. You'll learn the reserve supports over 300 species of birds, but the undisputed stars are the Big Five, comprising the lion, African elephant, Cape buffalo, leopard and rhinoceros. You might even spot a white lion, as Pumba is one of only two reserves in South Africa where this rare species roams freely. With periodic stops to observe the animals up close, you may catch sight of zebras grazing in the grassland, massive hippos wallowing in the mud flats or herds of Cape bushbucks gracefully bounding across the fields. You'll marvel at the giraffes, who often come right up to the vehicles out of curiosity. Following your thrilling game drive, conclude your bucket-list escapade with a hearty buffet lunch at the main lodge.

Duration: 8.00 Hrs Tour Price: $199.00

Retail Price: $349.00

Date: December 12, 2024 09:30 AM

Meander through the extraordinary Kwantu Private Game Reserve and view South Africa's most archetypal animals in their natural environment as well as various predators being rehabilitated. Enjoy an approximately 90-minute scenic drive inland to Sidbury, a historic village in the midst of an ecologically diverse area considered frontier country. Upon arrival, you'll be treated to refreshments before meeting your park ranger and boarding your open-air 4x4 vehicle, which offers unobstructed views ideal for photography. In the surrounding bush, catch sight of zebras, giraffes, wildebeests and the iconic Big Five, comprising the lion, African elephant, Cape buffalo, leopard and rhinoceros. You might also come across playful vervet monkeys, warthogs digging for roots or a solitary blue duiker at the edge of a clearing, with the ranger pointing out the various animals and explaining their habits in detail. After your magical game drive, pause at the reserve's rehabilitation center, where injured, orphaned and even poisoned wildlife are cared for. While visiting, you may see white lion cubs and cheetahs, and also learn about the breeding program for endangered tigers. As an enjoyable finale, relish a nourishing buffet lunch at the main lodge while viewing a rousing performance by Xhosa dancers and singers.

- Explore the Kwantu Private Game Reserve in search of wild animals during a 4x4 vehicle game drive.
- Enjoy unobstructed vistas and photo opportunities from your open-air vehicle.
- Watch for African elephants, rhinoceros, leopards, Cape buffalo and lions, collectively known as the Big Five.
- Find shy blue duikers, industrious warthogs and spirited vervet monkeys with the assistance of your ranger.
- Tour the reserve's rehabilitation center for injured, ill, endangered and orphaned predators.
- Experience the terrific dancers and singers of the Xhosa people during a buffet lunch at the main lodge.

PTE-012 SCHOTIA PRIVATE GAME RESERVE

Duration: 8.00 Hrs Tour Price: $299.00

Retail Price: $479.00

Date: December 12, 2024 09:30 AM

Look for iconic African animals on a lengthy game drive through Schotia Private Game Reserve, a sanctuary adjacent to Addo Elephant National Park. The same family has owned and operated Schotia reserve since 1933, and it is renowned for being the first reserve where lions hunt on their own, rather than being fed. Traveling through the bush in an open-air 4x4 vehicle offers countless opportunities to observe lions, hippos, rhinos, giraffes and elephants. Seeing them up close in their natural habitats is an extraordinary experience, especially since the animals are accustomed to being around people and are undisturbed by the presence of humans. There isn't a fence between Schotia and the national park so the animals freely roam between the properties, which increases your chances of seeing a huge variety of animals. You can also expect to catch sight of smaller creatures such as monkeys, crocodiles and birds, as more than 150 avian species live in Schotia.

- Drive through a privately owned game reserve that has been in the same family since 1933.
- Look for elephants, lions and African plains animals, which are abundant in the reserve.
- Expect to see plenty of smaller animals, as well, including countless species of birds.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour requires a moderate amount of activity and participants should be in good physical condition. This tour is not suitable for guests in wheelchairs; or those with walking difficulties. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Not recommended for guests with back & neck problems. For safety reasons, no children under the age of 6 years allowed on the open vehicles. Wildlife sightings cannot be guaranteed.

Paddle a canoe down the Sundays River in the shadow of the Addo Elephant National Park and observe the indigenous wildlife, especially water birds. While there is no telling what you will see, birds that have been spotted along the river include giant kingfishers, curlew sandpipers, greater flamingoes and little terns. The African fish eagle is one of the area's most regal birds, especially the adults, which closely resemble bald eagles. If you see one, be sure to scan the sky or branches nearby, as they are usually seen in pairs. After disembarking, you will walk a short distance through the bush, which is covered in native shrubbery known as fynbos. The biodiversity is extraordinary as the bush contains thousands of plant species, including the king protea, South Africa's national flower. When in bloom, the large petals of the king protea resemble a crown. A braai – South Africa's version of a BBQ – follows.

- Canoe down the Sundays River, a coastal area known for its abundant water birds.
- Enjoy a short walk through the bush as the guide describes the indigenous flora and fauna.
- Dine on local specialties cooked over a fire, a style of barbecuing known as a braai.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

The tour is not considered suitable for wheelchair guests or those guests with mobility concerns. Weather appropriate clothing and flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended.

PTE-GL1 PORT ELIZABETH THROUGH THE EYES OF A LOCALPROTE

Duration: 5.00 Hrs Tour Price: $119.00

Retail Price: $269.00

GL

Date: December 12, 2024 09:30 AM

Discover how protea flowers are grown and harvested at a farm before visiting with local elders in Clarkson to hear anecdotes about the history of the Moravian town. The King Protea is South Africa's national flower, and you will see how this species and dozens of others are grown commercially at Oudebosch Farm Stall Tsitsikamma in the fertile countryside west of Port Elizabeth. You will watch how the locals propagate seeds, process the flowers and package them for export. It will be a fascinating glimpse into local farm life. Your experience in nearby Clarkson will be just as revealing, as you will meet with the elders of the small town to discuss their daily lives. Clarkson was founded in 1837 as a Moravian missionary station and only about 1,000 people live there today. The elders will describe how the town has changed over time, how residents earn a living and their traditional way of life.

- Tour a farm that grows and harvests protea flowers for commercial export.
- Mingle with the local workers and hear what it's like to farm proteas.
- Meet with the elders in a small Moravian town and learn about life there years ago.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour includes approximately 2 hours and 15 minutes of walking/standing. Guests will need to manage even, tarred and uneven surfaces along with 4 steps throughout the excursion. Any additional walking through out the tour will be at the guests' discretion during free time. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests and may not be suitable for those with mobility concerns who are cautioned to carefully evaluate their personal level of stamina and ability. Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested. This tour has a limited capacity; therefore, it is recommended that guests pre-book this tour as early as possible.

PTE-003 ADDO ELEPHANT PARK BY 4x4

Duration: 5.00 Hrs Tour Price: $179.00

Retail Price: $339.00

Date: December 12, 2024 10:00 AM

Venture off-road through the Addo Elephant Park in a 4x4 safari vehicle, seeking the bountiful wildlife that roams freely in this vast nature reserve. Settle in for an approximately 75-minute journey north across the Swartkops River to Addo Elephant Park, a spectacular nature reserve that stands as living proof of the success of South Africa's conservation efforts. Upon arrival, you'll board your open-air 4x4 safari vehicle, which is designed to provide unobstructed views of the resident animals. During your approximately two-hour game drive, catch sight of the park's namesake elephants, a somewhat smaller species of the African elephant, and discover that they are reddish rather than the more common gray. You'll gather that they are highly intelligent creatures that communicate through vocalization, touching with their trunks and various body postures. Learn that the park's five biomes, from grassland to montane forest, support an enormous diversity of other animals, including black rhino, lions, antelopes, spotted hyenas, zebras and warthogs as well as a wide variety of birds, including the world's largest Cape gannet breeding population. You'll feel closer than ever to unspoiled Africa on this exceptional adventure.

- Approach the magnificent animal denizens of the Addo Elephant Park during an off-road game drive.
- Access off-the-beaten-path locations with the flexibility of your open-air 4x4 vehicle.
- Gaze in awe at the park's subtly red-hued Addo elephants, an intelligent and sociable species.
- Discern signs of communication among the elephants, such as touching trunks or vocalizing.
- Keep an eye out for zebras, warthogs, antelopes and the more rarely seen lions and black rhino.
- Glory in a range of fabulous birds including the African crowned eagle and Cape gannet.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses, binoculars and sunscreen.
- Guests are not permitted to use cellular phones during the game drives.

This tour is panoramic in nature with very limited walking. It is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair or guests with mobility concerns. Guests must be able to enter and exit the 4x4 vehicle with limited assistance. Tour vehicles travel on gravel and bumpy roads; tour is not recommended for pregnant women and guests with back, hip and/or neck problems. For safety reasons, no children under the age of six are allowed in the open-air vehicles. No food may be taken into the reserve in the open vehicles. Guests are not permitted to use cellular phones, smoke, speak loudly or stand up during the game drives, as this will disturb the animals. There will be comfort stops upon entering and exiting the park. Wildlife sightings, while likely, are not guaranteed

PTE-013 PENGUIN ISLAND CRUISE

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Tour Price: $229.00

Retail Price: $399.00

Date: December 12, 2024 10:00 AM

Cruise to the world's largest colony of African penguins and look for marine life such as dolphins and whales along the way. The penguins inhabit St. Croix, a rocky island that is almost completely devoid of soil. Although the island sanctuary offers an excellent natural habitat, the penguins are in decline from environmental risks, oil spills and their eggs being pilfered for human consumption. While observing these endemic penguins, you will likely hear them braying like donkeys, which is why they are also known as jackass penguins. You may also spot bottlenose and humpback dolphins, large numbers of which frequent these waters. The island is on the migratory routes of various whales, although the Bryde's whale lives year-round in the area. It is quite a spectacle to see one feeding, as these whales burst through a school of fish with their mouths wide open and their throat pleats extended.

- Cruise to rocky St. Croix island to observe the world's largest colony of African penguins.
- Gain an understanding of the threats to the birds and the efforts to protect them.
- Look for dolphins, whales and other marine life as you cruise to and from the island.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour requires a moderate amount of activity and participants should be in good physical condition. This tour is not suitable for guests in wheelchairs; or those with walking difficulties. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina.

PTE-014 BELLEVUE FOREST - WALK WITH GIANTS

Duration: 6.00 Hrs Tour Price: $129.00

Retail Price: $279.00

Date: December 12, 2024 10:00 AM

Ride into the wilds of the Bellevue Forest Reserve in a 4x4 safari-style vehicle and enjoy close-up encounters with some of Africa's most iconic animals. As you wind your way into the bush, the guide will point out and describe the flora and fauna, which include feline favorites such as lions and leopards. You will have the rare opportunity for a close-up view of Cape buffaloes being fed. Distinguished by their hook-shaped horns, these hulking beasts eat huge amounts of grass each day. You will also be treated to an enlightening walk through the bush to observe a giraffe in its natural habitat. It is quite the sight to see a giraffe drink, as it must splay its legs and bend at the knees just to reach the water. Later, while toasting the experience with sparkling wine and an African grilled bread known as rooster brood, you can recount your animal encounters.

- Drive into a forest reserve and watch Cape buffaloes up-close as they feed on grass.
- Walk through the bush and observe a giraffe, the world's tallest mammal, up close.
- Look for other animals such as lions and leopards while the guide describes them in detail.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour is not suitable for guests in wheelchairs and those with walking difficulties, due to the challenges of boarding the 4x4 open vehicles, as well as the walking during the walking safari. Weather appropriate clothing; sunglasses; binoculars and flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended. Tour is not recommended for guests with back & neck problems. Wildlife sightings cannot be guaranteed.

Duration: 3.50 Hrs Tour Price: $109.00

Retail Price: $259.00

Date: December 12, 2024 10:00 AM

Join some of the residents of Walmer Township for a bit of light gardening and to see how they turn recycled materials into handicrafts. The oldest township in Port Elizabeth, Walmer was originally farm land and sections of it are being re-purposed for crops once again. Your host will show around one of the organic gardens that now flourishes on a former landfill. Feel free to pitch in and help maintain the sustainable gardens as you learn how they support the community, promote a healthier lifestyle and teach Walmer's youth agricultural skills that can be life-changing. You will also have the opportunity to participate in a traditional crafting workshop and browse a project that assists disabled and blind residents of the township. Projects such as these offer hope to the local population, much of which is impoverished and unemployed. Your host will candidly describe the challenges and how the community is working to overcome them.

- Hear the uplifting story of how organic gardens have given new hope to the impoverished .
- Do a little gardening with the founder of the project, who will candidly offer his insights .
- Join a workshop and learn the basics of beading, one of the most traditional handicrafts .
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing .

PTE-005 LOCAL TOWNSHIPS AND ARTS & CRAFT CENTER

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $189.00

Date: December 12, 2024 10:30 AM

Tour some townships where resistance to apartheid was particularly strong in the 1960s and 1970s, and see how they have since flourished artistically and culturally. Receive an insight into the local African culture like no other you have ever experienced, and in doing so, will contribute to the economic upliftment so vital for the people of South Africa. Drive through downtown Port Elizabeth, once a hotbed of political and social resistance to apartheid. As you continue through its neighboring townships, you will notice the vast differences in the residential areas, such as poor, undeveloped Missionvale and middle-class Kwadwesi. Your guide will point out a number of landmarks along the way, including the Native Strangers Location, Livingstone Hospital, and Lithuli Square, which is named for the political activist who won the Nobel Peace Prize in 1960 for his non-violent opposition to apartheid. Stop for photos at a viewpoint in Kwa Magxaki before proceeding on through several other townships. Stopping in Rhamaphosa Village, a squatter camp, you will enjoy a visit to the community's Arts and Crafts Center. Several styles of artwork are on display and for sale, all of them deeply personal to the local artists. Some of the subject matter may reflect the legacy of apartheid and how the people have struggled in this part of South Africa. Drive by Emlotheni Memorial Park, which commemorates the death of six men who were executed in 1964 for defiantly resisting apartheid forces. Then, visit a local school or community center, where you'll be served some refreshments and have the opportunity to interact with local community members and possibly some school children. Please note: This tour is mostly panoramic in nature with limited optional walking at any stops made. Tour is conducted in small coaches which cannot accommodate wheel chairs. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests. Only local currency (South African Rand) is accepted in the crafts building and there is no shipping. The toilet facilities are very basic. Most of the sites visited on this tour are part of an African Township, which while having extreme poverty, are busy being uplifted by the government and the local community, making them a place of hope. Participants should be prepared for this aspect of the tour. Weather appropriate clothing, adequate sun protection and flat comfortable walking shoes are recommended.

PTE-001 PANORAMIC PORT ELIZABETH

Duration: 3.50 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $129.00

Date: December 12, 2024 11:00 AM

Take in the landmarks of Port Elizabeth from the comfort of your coach, leaving you with a wonderful impression of South Africa's beloved Friendly City. At the entrance to the harbor, note the soaring Campanile, which was erected in 1923 and holds a carillon of 23 bells in honor of the area's first British settlers. Continuing along the scenic shore, you'll pass the lovely suburb of Summerstrand, drive through the campus of the Nelson Mandela University and perhaps stop at Shark Rock Pier to take in panoramic views of the city. Pausing for photos whenever possible, see the beautiful Victorian Gothic Main Library, the Feather Market, constructed during the ostrich feather boom, and Dias Cross, a tribute to Portuguese explorer Bartolomeu Dias, who erected a cross nearby after discovering Algoa Bay in 1488. At the Donkin Reserve park, you'll observe a stone pyramid dedicated to Elizabeth Donkin, after whom the city was named in the 1820s. Admire well-preserved Fort Frederick and two sporting venues, Saint George's Park Cricket Ground, which is South Africa's oldest bowling green, and the more modern Nelson Mandela Stadium, all testament to Port Elizabeth's dynamic role in South Africa's history.

- Get acquainted with the Friendly City, affectionate nickname for Port Elizabeth, on a relaxing panoramic tour.
- Pause for memorable photos at several captivating points along the way, conditions permitting.
- Behold the towering 1923 Campanile, which houses a carillon and commemorates the area's earliest British settlers.
- View numerous intriguing landmarks including the Victorian Gothic Main Library and the stately Feather Market.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

Duration: 3.00 Hrs Tour Price: $99.00

Retail Price: $249.00

Date: December 13, 2024 05:30 PM

Enjoy a panoramic drive through Durban in the early evening when "Durbs," as it is affectionately known, is fully illuminated and most radiant. As you follow the waterfront on Victoria Embarkment, you will pass landmarks such as the Yacht Club, Juma Mosque and the statue of Dick King, a pioneer who made an epic ride on horseback in 1842 to request help for the besieged British garrison. Other highlights include the Neo-Baroque city hall, the ornate 19th-century post office and the Natural History Museum. This latter is Durban's oldest building and was once the courthouse. As you approach the Golden Mile beachfront, you will likely see Zulus dressed in colorful headdresses and costumes carrying sightseers around in rickshaws. It is just one expression of Durban's cultural diversity. The city's cuisine is equally varied as you will discover at a magnificent finger-fork dinner at an upscale restaurant along the coast.

- See Durban at night when the city lights are illuminated and the downtown is most radiant.
- Learn about the history of Durban while passing the most revealing historical landmarks.
- Savor the local cuisine at a finger-fork dinner toward the end of the panoramic city tour.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

It is available to guests who utilize a collapsible wheelchair, can make their way on and off the coach and have a companion to assist them. Weather appropriate clothing; and flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended.

DUR-006 NELSON MANDELA CAPTURE SITE

Duration: 5.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $109.00

Date: December 14, 2024 08:00 AM

Learn some more about Nelson Mandela at the site where he was captured. Applaud a steel-pole sculpture that ingeniously transforms into Nelson Mandela's face and visit a waterfall that the Zulus hold sacred. Settle in for a picturesque drive into the Natal Midlands, through the fetching city of Pietermaritzburg and on to an unassuming stretch of highway that was suddenly thrust into the spotlight on August 5, 1962. Visit the museum and learn it was here that police captured anti-apartheid activist Mandela, who was posing as a chauffeur to avoid detection, after which he spent 27 years in prison, emerging as the world's most recognized political prisoner. Near the spot that marks Mandela's capture, you'll see 50 steel poles that seem to be randomly placed, but as you come closer, they coalesce into an image of Mandela's face, an extraordinarily moving sculpture and fitting tribute to the inspiring Nobel Prize-winner. Nearby, you'll gaze in awe at the Howick Falls, a roaring cascade falling just over 310 feet. Discover that the falls are known to the Zulu people as Place of the Tall One, or KwaNogqaza, and that traditional Zulu healers believe the turbulent pool at the base holds mystical powers. You'll long ponder the revered South African sites you've visited on this uplifting excursion.

- Drive to the picturesque Natal Midlands, passing through the gracious city of Pietermaritzburg.
- Contemplate the imprisonment of anti-apartheid activist Nelson Mandela at the very site where he was captured.
- Treasure a unique outdoor sculpture made with steel poles that arrange themselves into Mandela's face as you approach.
- Exult in more than 310 feet of plunging water at the Howick Falls, the Zulu Place of the Tall One.
- Wear lightweight, casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes approximately two hours of moderate walking/standing, on paved and uneven surfaces, and some steps. Tour is not recommended for wheel chair guests.

Duration: 4.50 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $139.00

Date: December 14, 2024 08:30 AM

Become immersed in the world of traditional healers by visiting with several of these revered sangomas in the township of Umlazi. You will gain insight into how sangomas receive their calling, their roles within Zulu communities and how they treat a variety of illnesses. It will be a fascinating experience because these healers are relied on to treat physical and spiritual ailments, direct birth and death rituals, counteract witchcraft and even find lost cattle. One of the highlights will be watching the sangomas enter into a trance-like state and perform a dance that enables them to connect with their ancestral spirits. If you wish, you can consult with a sangoma and discuss whatever comes to mind, whether relating to the local culture or to you personally. A tour of Umlazi follows, during which you will learn how it has transitioned since 1845, when British settlers forcibly occupied the area.

- Gain an understanding of the importance of traditional healers in the Zulu culture.
- Watch the healers perform a hypnotic dance and consult with a healer, if you wish.
- Discover the history of township of Umlazi, a traditional home of the Zulu.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.

Explore Durban's fascinating blend of diverse Asian, African and European cultural influences during a wonderful panoramic tour with free time at the city's Indian Market. Begin your scenic drive down the palm-lined Victoria Embankment, en route passing the ornate Vasco Da Gama Clock, the elegant Durban Club, the exclusive Yacht Club and the Dick King Statue, dedicated to an English trader and local hero. After stopping at Currie Hill for panoramic views overlooking the city, visit the Durban Botanical Gardens and stroll through lush grounds renowned for their orchid house and rare collection of cycads, plants dating back to prehistoric times. In the city center, drive past a succession of stately buildings, including City Hall, the Natural Science Museum and the Post Office. Drive by the Juma Mosque, famed for its turrets and massive gilded dome and stop for photos of the Moses Mabhida Stadium. Upon arrival at the Victoria Street Market, commonly known as the Indian Market, enjoy free time to browse a vibrant array of herbs, spices, delightful wooden carvings and delicately fashioned ebony and ivory ornaments.

- Experience the highlights of Durban from the comfort of your touring coach.
- See landmarks dotting the waterfront Victoria Embankment, including the grand Durban Club.
- Meander the luxuriant grounds of the Durban Botanical Gardens, which feature an orchid house and rare cycad collection.
- Behold sumptuous downtown landmarks such as City Hall and the Natural Science Museum.
- Shop for enticing keepsakes, including ebony and ivory ornaments, at the lively Indian Market.
- Take in the entire city from Currie Hill.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes approximately 1.5-hours of walking/standing, and a few steps. Tour is not recommended for wheel chair guests. Most of the shops at the Victoria Street Market close on Saturday afternoons and all-day Sunday; as an alternative you will spend more time at the Botanical Gardens.

DUR-004 VALLEY OF THE THOUSAND HILLS

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $199.00

Date: December 14, 2024 09:00 AM

Uncover past and present-day African tribal culture in the ancestral homeland of the Zulu during this enthralling journey to the Valley of a Thousand Hills. During your scenic drive, hear that nearly two centuries ago the Zulu King Shaka, known to historians as the Black Napoleon, subjugated the tribes that today comprise the Kingdom of the Zulu. Upon arrival at the PheZulu Safari Park, you'll enjoy a guided walking tour focused on the customs and beliefs of the Zulu people, including a performance of energetic songs by costumed members of the renowned Gasa clan. Revel in dances of courtship and betrothal, war and birth, and the throwing of bones by a witch doctor, or sangoma, all set to the mesmerizing beat of the Zulu drum. You'll walk through a recreated village, learning about African tribal culture and visit PheZulu's riveting reptile park to view some of Africa's most notorious snakes and crocodiles. During your tour, appreciate revitalizing tea, coffee and scones as well as time to browse an array of ethnic handicrafts, including Zulu fabric art, pottery, woodcarvings and beadwork.

- Rejoice in the Zulu way of life at the PheZulu Safari Park, tucked in the Valley of a Thousand Hills.
- Understand the alluring culture of the Zulu during a costumed dance performance accompanied by Zulu drumming.
- Absorb the rhythm of daily tribal life as you stroll among the beehive huts of a recreated Zulu village.
- Admire incredible African crocodile and snake specimens at PheZulu's reptile park.
- Refresh with coffee, tea and scones during your enlightening sojourn in PheZulu.
- Shop for handcrafted mementoes such as Zulu fabric art, woodcarvings, pottery and beadwork.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes over one hour of walking/standing over paved pathways, wooden boardwalk, some uneven, sandy terrain and steps. Ground can be muddy after heavy rainfall. This tour is not recommended for guests who utilize a wheelchair or guests with mobility concerns.

DUR-GL1 DURBAN THROUGH THE EYES OF A LOCAL LITTLE INDIA

Duration: 5.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $149.00

Date: December 14, 2024 09:00 AM

Discover the richly layered Indian influence throughout the province of KwaZulu-Natal by talking to locals at a spice market, in a settlement where Mahatma Gandhi lived and at a Hare Krishna temple. Your immersion into India's contribution to South Africa will begin at Victoria Street Market, the oldest in Durban. While browsing the stalls, you will see piles of freshly ground spices, statues of Buddha and countless other Indian products while Indian music plays in the background. Continuing on to the nearby Phoenix Settlement, you see where the revered Gandhi started his first newspaper and begin experimenting with communal living and pursuing interfaith harmony and social justice. His influence is still felt throughout the community. You will then visit the largest Hare Krishna temple in Durban, a cultural treasure that blends Vedic and contemporary architecture. As you meander about the large and opulent temple, be sure to notice the beautiful tile work, crystal chandeliers and golden lotus-shaped statuettes.

- Browse the wide variety of Indian products, especially spices, in Durban's oldest market.
- Tour the community where Mahatma Gandhi lived and began his spiritual transformation.
- Wander through a lavish temple where the Hare Krishna branch of Hinduism is practiced.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour includes approximately 2 hours and 20 minutes of walking/standing. Guests will need to manage even, uneven and paved surfaces along with 15 steps throughout the excursion. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests and may not be suitable for those with mobility concerns who are cautioned to carefully evaluate their personal level of stamina and ability. Casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable, flat walking shoes are suggested. This tour has a limited capacity; therefore, it is recommended that guests pre-book this tour as early as possible.

DUR-005 HOWICK FALLS AND ARDMORE CERAMICS

Duration: 7.50 Hrs Tour Price: $99.00

Retail Price: $249.00

Date: December 14, 2024 09:30 AM

Embrace the scenic and artistic splendor of South Africa during visits to the magnificent Howick Falls and the fabulous Ardmore Ceramic Art studio. Enjoy a leisurely drive through fetching Pietermaritzburg on your way to the Howick Falls, located approximately 59 miles from Durban in the heart of the Natal Midlands, and gaze in awe at a spectacular cascade falling just over 310 feet. You'll learn that the falls, which weren't seen by European explorers until the early 19th century, are known to the Zulu people as Place of the Tall One, or KwaNogqaza. After lunch at a local restaurant, continue to the celebrated Ardmore Ceramic Art studio, founded in 1985 by Fée Halsted, 2016 winner of the women's Mbokodo Award for her contribution to the arts in South Africa. You'll glory in a display of meticulously crafted pottery that has attracted the attention of Christie's of London and discriminating collectors worldwide. As you study the exquisite works, which often feature African wildlife, you'll appreciate they are produced by skilled local artisans under the tutelage of Ms. Halsted. You're sure to delight in the beauty of South Africa, both natural and man-made, on this entrancing tour.

- Drive to the picturesque Natal Midlands, passing through the gracious city of Pietermaritzburg.
- Exult in more than 310 feet of plunging water at the Howick Falls, the Zulu Place of the Tall One.
- Examine refined and colorful works molded from clay at the acclaimed Ardmore Ceramic Art studio.
- Notice the South African influence on the ceramics, many of which showcase local wildlife.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes approximately two hours of walking/standing, on paved, uneven and sandy surfaces, and some steps. Tour is not available for wheelchair guests and not recommended for those with mobility concerns.

DUR-014 AFRICAN MARKET EXPERIENCE

Duration: 3.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $119.00

Date: December 14, 2024 09:30 AM, 01:30 PM

Browse the eclectic shops and stalls in several Durban markets and come away with a greater appreciation for the diversity of merchandise and people. The Victoria Street Market is the city's oldest and has grown to include more than 200 vendors. The exotic sights and sounds will be entrancing as you meander through stores selling everything from handcrafted jewelry to aromatic spices. The scale and variety of the Herb Market is just as impressive. It is a pharmacy of sorts where customers describe their ailments to traditional healers, who in turn supply them with the appropriate herbal remedies, which are pounded and ground on the spot with iron hammers. The aromas of these freshly processed herbs can be quite enticing. You will also visit a third venue, which could be one that sells colorful beads to adorn jewelry, handbags and clothing. If the bead market is closed, another market will be chosen.

- Enhance your understanding of the local culture by browsing three traditional markets.
- Meander through hundreds of open-air shops selling every sort of merchandise imaginable.
- Watch herb grinders prepare natural remedies for their awaiting customers.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour is not recommended for passengers in wheelchairs, or those with walking difficulties due to the amount of walking involved. Weather appropriate clothing; sunglasses; and flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended. Bead market open on Fridays only. If closed, beads can be viewed at Victoria Street Market.

Retail Price: $169.00

Date: December 14, 2024 10:00 AM, 01:00 PM

View the landmarks that define Durban, or Durbs, as it's affectionately known, on this relaxing panoramic tour of the city's historic downtown and stunningly beautiful coastline. Drive down palm-lined Victoria Embankment. Farther up the coast, discover the charms of the beach-blessed village of Umhlanga Rocks and the town of Ballito, perhaps spotting bottlenose dolphins frolicking and feeding near the shoreline, an area aptly called the Dolphin Coast. Return to Durban and pause for photos at Currie Hill, which offers sweeping vistas of the cosmopolitan city. Upon descending, you'll continue past many key attractions and a succession of stately buildings, including the neo-Baroque City Hall, the ornate 1885 Post Office and the Natural Science Museum, built in the 1860s and Durban's oldest surviving structure. From splendid architecture to natural gifts, you'll relish your excursion into Durban and its marvelous surroundings.

- Soak up the highlights of Durban and neighboring seaside towns from the comfort of your coach.
- Capture photos of the shores of seaside Ballito and Umhlanga Rocks.
- Take in expansive views of the entire city from an advantageous lookout on Currie Hill.
- Behold sumptuous downtown landmarks such as City Hall and the Natural Science Museum.
- Wear lightweight, casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour is primarily panoramic in nature with limited walking at the guest's discretion during stops. It is available to guests who utilize a collapsible wheelchair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have an able-bodied companion to assist them.

DUR-015 DURBAN COASTAL AND HIGH TEA

Duration: 4.00 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $159.00

Date: December 14, 2024 12:30 PM

Settle in for a wonderfully panoramic drive around Durban and along the coast to Umhlanga for a traditional high tea. On the way out of Durban, you will pass a multitude of historical government buildings and Juma Mosque, the largest mosque in the Southern Hemisphere. From atop Currie Hill, you will enjoy one last sweeping view of the urban landscape before heading north along the sea. Be sure to look for bottlenose dolphin just off shore as they are so prevalent that this stretch of sand has become known as the Dolphin Coast. Upon arriving at the waterfront Oyster Box Hotel in Umhlanga, you will be treated to high tea in the elegant Palm Court. It is an extraordinary setting for a sophisticated affair. The buffet table will be laid out with a generous selection of savory and sweet specialties such as flaky samosa pastries and the hotel's famed almond-coated chicken mayo sandwiches.

- Indulge in a traditional high tea at a luxury hotel overlooking the Indian Ocean.
- Admire the natural beauty north of Durban along the famed Dolphin Coast.
- View Durban's landmarks while driving through town and from atop Currie Hill.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

The tour is not considered suitable for wheelchair guests or those guests with mobility concerns. Weather appropriate clothing and flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended. The order of the sites visited or viewed may vary.

MPM-006 MAPUTO WALKING TOUR

Duration: 2.50 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $109.00

Date: December 16, 2024 08:00 AM, 12:45 PM

Stroll the wide boulevards of Mozambique's lovely capital, stopping at must-see attractions that include the ornate train station, bustling central market and an 18th-century fortress. Begin with a walk to the striking Beaux-Arts Central Railway Station, often mistakenly identified with Gustave Eiffel due to its alluring mint-green structure, iron latticework and large dome. You'll visit the Maputo Central Market, a vibrant open-air setting filled with stands of exotic fruits and vegetables, tropical nuts, colorful spices and fresh fish. At the nearby Café Continental, relax over a demitasse of espresso and a signature Maputo delicacy called a pasteis de nata, a custard tart that originated in Portugal. You'll discover the 18th-century Maputo Fortress, one of the city's most visited attractions, which provides insight into Mozambique's colonization in its intriguing museum displaying armaments and art, along with the sealed, carved wooden coffin of Ngungunhane, the final ruler of the famed African kingdom of Gaza, now southern Mozambique. You'll long remember your bewitching exploration of effervescent Maputo.

- Enjoy a leisurely walk to the eye-catching Beaux-Arts Central Railway Station.
 - Experience a cacophony of sights and sounds at the lively Maputo central market.
 - Sip a demitasse of espresso and savor a traditional custard tart at the Café Continental.
 - Survey armaments and art illustrative of Maputo's colonial days at the Maputo Fortress.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes. •Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes approximately 2 ½ hours of moderate walking. There will be some uneven surfaces and steps to negotiate. The tour is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair or guests with mobility concerns. Please be advised that Mozambique is a developing nation, and while visiting is a rewarding experience, it differs greatly from other urban destinations such as those found in South Africa. There is no formal guiding qualification required for Mozambique, and in order to support the local community, we use local escorts/guides. Many of these escorts/guides do have previous experience in guiding for visiting cruise ships. Please be aware that some of the international embassies and government buildings may be deemed military or state defense sites, and photography is not permitted. There can be serious consequences for ignoring these rules, so guests are advised to ask the tour guide before taking photos. The Central Market is undergoing renovation work. Guests who go ashore do so with the understanding that they will be mixing with members of the general public.

MPM-008 MAFALALA EXPLORER

Duration: 3.00 Hrs Tour Price: $109.00

Retail Price: $259.00

Date: December 16, 2024 09:00 AM

Delve into the culture of Mafalala on an enlightening walking tour through this ethnically diverse suburb of Mozambique's capital. While following a local guide down the typically narrow dirt streets of Mafalala, you will learn how the Portuguese colonization of Maputo affected the area and led to years of strict racial segregation that began in the late 19th century. Although Mafalala is economically challenged and many of the homes are built with little more than wood and sheets of rusty tin, the town is on the upswing. A number of Mozambique's most admired people have lived there, including soccer legend Eusébio and the country's first two presidents since Mozambique gained its independence from Portugal in 1975. The guide will translate if you wish to interact with some of the locals while walking about Mafalala or while browsing the FEIMA crafts market back in Maputo.

- Follow a local guide through the poor, but culturally rich suburb of Mafalala.
- Gain insight into the lifestyle and how it has changed since Mozambique's independence.
- Interact with the locals in Mafalala and while browsing a crafts market in Maputo.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

Please note: This tour includes approximately 2 1/2 hours of moderate walking that will include some steps and uneven surfaces. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests or those with mobility concerns. It is usually quite hot and humid in Mozambique so weather appropriate casual clothing; sun cap; sunglasses; sunscreen; and flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended. Of special note, Mozambique is a third world country and while visiting is a rewarding experience, it differs greatly from other urban destinations such as those found in South Africa. Duration: 4.50 Hrs Tour Price: $139.00

Retail Price: $289.00

Date: December 16, 2024 10:00 AM

Discover the fascinating history of Maputo by exploring and pausing for photos at the most telling landmarks. The capital's Beaux-Arts style train station is among the grandest buildings as it was designed by an architect that studied under famed French engineer Gustave Eiffel. You may see similarities between the Eiffel Tower and Maputo's iconic Iron House, an all-metal building that Eiffel designed and had prefabricated in Belgium. Other architectural highlights include the neoclassical city hall and the Cathedral of Our Lady of Immaculate Conception, which rises above a downtown square that commemorates Mozambique's independence from Portugal in 1975. The colonial influence will be most evident at the Maputo fort, which the Portuguese built in the 19th century atop the foundation of an earlier fortification. While browsing the covered Central Market, you may see ingredients such as those used in your lunch at a nearby restaurant popular among the locals.

- Visit architectural treasures in Maputo, including one that Gustave Eiffel designed.
- Gain an understanding of Maputo's history at sites such as Independence Square.
- Explore a fort that the Portuguese built in the 19th century, when they ruled Mozambique.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

Please note: The tour is not available to wheelchair guests or those with mobility concerns. Date: December 18, 2024 08:00 AM

Travel through the Thula Thula Private Game Reserve in an open-top vehicle that is ideal for the unobstructed viewing of Africa's most iconic animals. The former hunting grounds of King Shaka, the founder of the Zulu empire, this sprawling wildlife reserve is teeming with elephants, rhinos, giraffe, hippos and countless other creatures. Watching these animals up close in their natural habitats is an experience that you will find immensely enriching and emotionally moving. As you drive through the bush with a wildlife ranger, you can't help but appreciate the serenity. It's no wonder that the reserve was named Thula Thula, which in the Zulu language means "peace and tranquility." Be sure to ask how elephants were successfully reintroduced into the habitat in 1999 after being absent for more than a century. To complement your adventure, you will dine on a buffet of traditional South African dishes.

- Observe iconic African animals while driving through Thula Thula Private Game Reserve.
- Learn about the animals' behaviors and characteristics from your wildlife ranger guide.
- Enjoy a leisurely buffet lunch of traditional dishes at the reserve's main lodge.

Explore the culture and traditions of the Zulu tribe during this enlightening visit to the entrancing DumaZulu Traditional Village. Drive north to the DumaZulu Traditional Village, also known as Thundering Zulu, where more than 50 tribal residents form part of a living museum that offers a genuine Zulu cultural experience. Find that DumaZulu is the largest village of its kind in the Southern Hemisphere and the only Zulu community to be opened up to tourism by King Goodwill Zwelithini, who placed the royal Zulu stamp of approval on the village's objectives and authenticity. After enjoying a cooling refreshment, meet your guides and accept an invitation into the chief's homestead, or kraal, where you can watch and learn about the tribe's various traditions, including basket-weaving, spear- and shield-making, beadwork, pottery-sculpting, sangoma bone throwing, which is a form of divination, and fabulous dancing. You'll treasure your arresting immersion into the bewitching Zulu way of life during this remarkable excursion.

- Delve into an authentic Zulu cultural experience at the DumaZulu Traditional Village.
- Savor a cooling refreshment before meeting your knowledgeable native guides.
- Enter the chief's homestead, or kraal, to observe Zulu traditions of basket-weaving, beadwork and weapon-crafting, among others.
- See the healer, or sangoma, practicing a type of divination known as bone throwing.
- Soak up the rhythms of the Zulu's mesmerizing dancing.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour involves a substantial amount of walking. There will be uneven gravel surfaces to negotiate which can sometimes be muddy. The tour is available to guests who utilize a collapsible wheelchair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have an able-bodied companion to assist them. Guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. It is customary for unmarried Zulu women to be uncovered from the waist up. No photographs or videos may be taken of the traditional healer, or sangoma. Travel time from the pier to the village is approximately 1 ½ hours each way by coach.

Retail Price: $169.00

Date: December 17, 2024 12:30 PM

Date: December 18, 2024 08:00 AM

Discover a diverse collection of crocodiles and snakes at an intriguing reptile park. Take a leisurely 75-minute drive past unspoiled wetlands to Zulu Croc, an unusual reptile park that provides a hands-on experience amid an alluring landscape of savanna bushveld. You'll find that here you can touch some of the world's most fascinating creatures under the supervision of expert reptile handlers. Hand feed an iguana or pose for photos with a boa constrictor draped over your shoulders, if you wish, but simply observe the more dangerous and venomous creatures. Learn that Nile crocodiles can weigh up to 1,650 pounds and grow up to 20 feet long, a size they achieve by eating any appetizing morsel within their reach. Should you feel adventurous, stroke a baby croc while it's being held and, if it's feeding time, perhaps see adults leaping vertically out of the water to chomp chunks of raw meat. Take in myriad facts about snakes such as venomous puff adders, boomslangs and black mambas or the non-venomous carpet pythons and reticulated pythons, the world's longest snakes. You'll thrill to your up-close encounters with the fearsome yet magnificent residents of this enthralling park.

- Explore the world of crocodiles and reptiles at Zulu Croc, an extraordinary interactive park.
- Feed an iguana or take photos with a boa constrictor wrapped around you, under a handler's supervision.
- Examine the venomous and dangerous park species from a safe, comfortable distance.
- Watch Nile crocodiles eat voraciously, should you visit during feeding time.
- Admire deadly snakes, including the black mamba, puff adder and the reticulated python, the longest snake in the world.
- Wear casual, lightweight and light-colored, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a windbreaker.
- Carry bottled water, as you may require hydration.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses, binoculars and sunscreen.

This tour includes approximately 90 minutes of easy-to-moderate walking/standing. There will be some natural and uneven surfaces to negotiate. The tour is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair. It may not be suitable for guests with mobility concerns, who are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina.

Retail Price: $149.00

Date: December 17, 2024 12:30 PM

Date: December 18, 2024 08:15 AM

Walk through the iSimangaliso Wetland Park with an ornithologist that will point out and describe the abundant birds along the way. The biodiversity in the wetlands is so spectacular that UNESCO declared it a World Heritage site, the first such designation in South Africa. This vast area – also known as the St. Lucia Wetlands – is especially a paradise for birders as more than 520 avian species have been identified there. You may see pink-backed pelicans, yellow-billed storks, African spoonbills and white-faced whistling ducks, a striking goose-like bird usually seen in flocks numbering in the hundreds. But birds aren't the only creatures that you can expect to spot in the wetlands. Chances are, you will see waterbuck and reedbuck antelopes grazing in the park's grasslands and massive hippos almost completely submerged in the waters to keep their skin moist and cool. A group of hippos is called a "bloat," a reference to their bulky size.

- Observe a variety of birdlife while walking through the iSimangaliso Wetland Park.
- Hear fascinating facts about the birds and their behavior from the ornithologist guide.
- Look for African animals such as hippos and antelope, which also thrive in the park.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

This tour includes a moderate amount of walking. It is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair. Those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Weather appropriate clothing and flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended. Bring a hat, camera and binoculars. Tour is weather permitting. Wildlife sightings are not guaranteed.

Duration: 4.75 Hrs Tour Price: $99.00

Retail Price: $249.00

Date: December 20, 2024 07:30 AM

Look for some of Africa's most iconic animals on a game drive through a natural reserve teeming with wildlife. Upon reaching the Garden Route Game Lodge, you will drive into the bush in an open-air 4x4 vehicle in search of the Big Five—elephants, lions, leopards, rhinoceroses and Cape buffaloes. A game ranger will serve as your guide and point out the various species, as they roam freely in their natural habitat, a gorgeous setting backed by the majestic Langeberg mountain range. The ranger will periodically stop the vehicle so you can observe the animals up close. While there is no telling what you will see, you may catch sight of lions lying in the shade of a tree, elephants strolling to a water hole and zebras grazing in the grassland. Giraffes often come right up to the vehicles out of curiosity. Lesser-known animals are also abundant, including antelopes such as kudu and bontebok.

- Drive into the bush in a 4x4 vehicle for an up-close look at Africa's most iconic animals.
- Watch for the Big Five—elephants, lions, leopards, rhinoceroses and Cape buffaloes.
- Learn about the animals' behaviors and characteristic from the game ranger.

Date: December 20, 2024 08:00 AM, 10:00 AM

Discover highlights of beguiling Mossel Bay and explore a museum complex dedicated to the first European to land in South Africa. Enjoy an enlightening drive around Mossel Bay, a beach-blessed city in the shadow of the Outeniqua Mountains that was named by a Dutch explorer in 1601, when he found a huge collection of mussel shells in a nearby cave. As you travel along the town's charming streets, you'll learn that South Africa's first post office was established here centuries ago after sailors began leaving letters in the cleft of a milkwood tree so that other sailors could deliver them on their journeys. See that revered, 500-year-old tree, now a National Monument, standing near the Bartolomeu Dias Museum Complex, which is named for a Portuguese navigator who was the first European to set foot in South Africa in his search for a spice route to the Far East. During your time at the complex, perhaps you'll visit the absorbing Shell Museum or the Maritime Museum, where a replica of Dias' ship is on exhibit, along with early maps and navigation instruments. Experience the compelling sites and seafaring history of enchanting Mossel Bay on this captivating excursion.

- Acquaint yourself with seaside Mossel Bay on a coach tour of its intriguing highlights.
- Gaze at a 500-year-old tree, declared a National Monument for its use by sailors in times past as an ad hoc mailbox.
- Find the Bartolomeu Dias Museum Complex, named after the first European to arrive in South Africa.
- Wander the appealing museum complex, perhaps visiting the Maritime Museum or the Shell Museum.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes approximately one hour of easy walking. There are a few steps to negotiate and ramps are available. The tour is available to guests who utilize a collapsible wheelchair, are able to make their own way on and off the coach and have an able-bodied companion to assist them. MOB-005 DISCOVER OUDTSHOORN & ITS OSTRICH HERITAGE

Duration: 4.50 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $139.00

Date: December 20, 2024 08:00 AM

OVERVIEW Enjoy a scenic mountain drive to an ostrich farm on this entertaining tour. Journey along the magnificent Garden Route, passing ancient forests, golden beaches and craggy peaks covered in a flowering scrub called fynbos. As you turn inland into the Outeniqua Mountains, you'll notice the terrain quickly changes from rugged coastal to an arid, desert-like landscape known as Karoo. Cross the Outeniqua Pass along a highway that was painstakingly blasted out of nearly impenetrable bedrock and wind along marvelous, sweeping curves that offer panoramic views in all directions. Discover Oudtshoorn, set in an oasis-like location in a fertile valley, and behold the town's ornate architecture, which reflects the opulence engendered by the ostrich-feather boom of 1860-1914, when Oudtshoorn supplied exotic feathers to adorn the clothing of ladies throughout Europe. Visit a working farm to learn how these giant birds are bred and reared, perhaps even seeing ostriches hatching in the incubator rooms.

- Travel the picturesque Garden Route along beaches, ancient forests and rugged peaks.
- Observe the changing landscape as you venture inland to a dry, semi-desert terrain known as Karoo.
- Marvel at a highway blasted from solid bedrock to provide access through dramatic Outeniqua Pass.
- Appreciate the ornate architecture of Oudtshoorn, once the premier supplier of ostrich feathers for European high fashion.
- Tour an ostrich farm for insight into how the birds are bred and reared, and perch atop an ostrich, if you wish.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring binoculars.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

This tour includes approximately 1-hour of moderate walking that includes gravel and uneven surfaces. The tour is not available to wheelchair guests and not recommended for those with mobility concerns. Weather appropriate clothing; sun cap; sunglasses; binoculars; and flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended.

MOB-010 GIN TASTING & FOOD PAIRING

Duration: 2.50 Hrs Tour Price: $0.00

Retail Price: $139.00

Date: December 20, 2024 08:00 AM

Sample an inspired selection of hand-crafted gins thoughtfully paired with local foods at the Cape Saint Blaize Artisanal Distillery. It won't take long to reach the distillery, which is located in Ochre Barn, a replica of an 18th-century granary in Mossel Bay's historic district. The gins are made with botanicals such as juniper, rose geranium and star anise that have been foraged locally by hand. The flavors of the gins reflect the surrounding coastal, forest and semi-arid desert terrains. The exact gins for the tasting will be chosen upon your arrival, but they will likely include a soft floral pink gin, an aromatic gin with late burst of citrus and a woody gin with a velvet-like mouthfeel. The gins are meant to be enjoyed neat, on ice or with tonic. The foods for the pairings will be just as expressive. Afterwards, you might purchase your favorite gins, which are neatly packaged in handmade porcelain bottles.

- Sample several locally made gins at the Cape Saint Blaize Artisanal Distillery.
- Learn about the natural botanicals that are used in the production of the various gins.
- Delight in the foods that are paired with the gins to complement their flavors.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes.

Participants must be at least 18 years of age. Tour is not available to guests who utilize a wheelchair, those guests with mobility concerns are cautioned to evaluate their personal level of ability and stamina. Weather appropriate clothing and flat, comfortable walking shoes are recommended.

Duration: 4.50 Hrs Tour Price: $79.00

Retail Price: $229.00

Date: December 20, 2024 08:30 AM

Follow a coastal hiking trail that offers staggeringly beautiful views in every direction. You will hike a stretch of about four miles of the St. Blaize Trail, which runs between the Cape St. Blaize lighthouse and Dana Bay. The exact route will be determined the day of the hike depending on the conditions. Regardless, you can expect it to be a wonderfully scenic trek along a mostly open treeless trail, which affords dramatic views of the southern coast. You may also spot wildlife such as rock hyraxes, which are commonly known as dassies. Despite their small size, these mammals are the closest living relative of the African elephant. Their feet and teeth are similar but really nothing more, as will be obvious if you encounter any dassies. Be sure to scan the ocean for whales and dolphins breaching the water's surface. At the end of the hike, you will drop by a nearby restaurant for refreshments.

- Hike an beautiful coastal stretch of the St. Blaize Trail.
- Enjoy dramatic vistas as the trail is mostly open with few trees to block your view.
- Look for whales and dolphins in the ocean and small land mammals known as dassies.
- Dress in weather-appropriate clothing.
- Wear flat comfortable walking shoes

You'll travel eastward along the magnificent Garden Route, passing ancient forests, golden beaches and craggy peaks covered in a flowering scrub called fynbos. Traverse the stunningly gorgeous scenery of the Wilderness Lakes region and arrive at the charming town of Knysna, tucked between the Outeniqua Mountains and the Indian Ocean. You'll realize forest-rimmed Knysna is a natural paradise whose name is thought to mean "place of wood" in Khoisan, the language of the area's earliest inhabitants. Admire the cosmopolitan town, which has retained much of its original charm, and savor free time at the waterfront, where myriad shops and galleries invite you to browse for high-end crafts and restaurants entice you to try local delicacies. Because of Knysna's proximity to several estuaries, rivers and the ocean, you'll discover that seafood is a favorite, especially dishes with oysters. As you meander the inviting waterfront, looking out over the serene tidal lagoon, let the exquisite atmosphere of Knysna seep into your soul.

- Travel the picturesque Garden Route along beaches, ancient forests and rugged peaks.
- Relish time at your leisure to roam the enchanting town of Knysna, which is surrounded by verdant forests.
- Shop for upscale crafts in tempting shops along the appealing waterfront.
- Sate your appetite with a specialty oyster dish at one of the town's seafood restaurants, if you wish.
- Wear casual, weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable walking shoes.
- Bring a hat, sunglasses and sunscreen.

Walking on this tour is mainly at the guest's discretion during free time. There are some steps to negotiate and ramps are available.
